Chatham Hill Winery Announces Megan Leonard as Special Event Sales Manager

(Cary, NC) – Marek Wojciechowski and Jill Winkler, proprietors of Chatham Hill Winery, have announced that Megan Leonard has joined the winery as the Special Event Sales Manager. Megan joins the winery with a diverse background in event sales and catering. She brings a passion for the growth and success of Chatham Hill, the only winery in the Triangle.

Leonard's presence aims to increase awareness of the winery's unique event space while offering on-site full event coordination services to clients seeking a one-of-a-kind venue for any special occasion. Since doubling in size this year, the winery event space will host events ranging from private and corporate dinners to grand soirees. As an event sales manager, Leonard will focus on creating and sustaining the visibility of the winery as a premiere location for special events in the Triangle.

"We're delighted to have Megan join our Chatham Hill Winery team. Her experience and background will ensure that every event held at the winery exceeds the high standards of service that Chatham Hill has come to be known," said Jill Winkler.

About Chatham Hill Winery:

Chatham Hill Winery, established in 1999 as the first and only winery in the Triangle, is a boutique winery hosting wine tasting, winery tours as well as private and corporate functions and meetings. Its mission is to produce distinctive, handcrafted wines of high quality from the best grapes grown in North Carolina as well as provide a one-of-a-kind event facility in the Triangle. With a mission of learning, it is Chatham Hill's goal to provide an experiential environment in which their guests can gain knowledge of the nuances in the enjoyment of wine. In the last several years the company has experience double-digit growth each year and has relocated to a larger, upscale space conveniently located moments from I-40 south of the RDU Airport.
