CHATHAM HILL WINERY WINS SILVER IN GRAND HARVEST AWARD COMPETITION

Morrisville, N.C. (May 31, 2006) – Chatham Hill Winery’s 2004 Riesling earned a silver medal in the prestigious 2006 Grand Harvest Awards competition held annually in Santa Rosa (Sonoma County), California. Truly one-of-a-kind, Grand Harvest Awards are judged according to terroir or within the context of their own viticultural area.

According to Chatham Hill Winery’s proprietor and winemaker, Marek Wojciechowski, “Chatham Hill Winery’s 2004 Riesling is on the lower scale of sweetness in relation to a German Riesling where it can range from bone dry to syrupy sweet. A young wine meant to be enjoyed early on with intense fruit flavors, our Riesling is exceptional when paired with spicy food, especially Asian or even Carolina BBQ.”

Nestled in the hub of the Research Triangle Park, Chatham Hill Winery is a warm and welcoming venue where guests can tour the area’s only winery and taste award winning wines. A popular venue for hosting corporate events, weddings and rehearsal parties, Chatham Hill Winery produces 6000 cases of wine annually in Morrisville/Cary, North Carolina just south of the Raleigh/Durham Airport.
